

The Obituary of KAUMBA MWANANYAMBE

16th Nov. 1967—2nd Feb. 2022

With profound fondness, the New Apostolic Church Relief Organisation (NACRO) shares in the grief and in the memories of KAUMBA MWANYAMBE.

Born 16th November, 1967 in Mongu, Barotseland, Kaumba Mwananyambe went on to live a life of love and passion for others. He became a father and husband with 6 children.

NACRO celebrates his passionate and purposeful life observed in his knack for the joy and prosperity of the community. Kaumba Mwananyambe later joined NACRO on 1st September, 2009 as Programmes Officer and entreated us to his ways of loving people.

Kaumba Mwananyambe was educated at Kambule Technical Secondary School. He obtained his BA in Development Studies from the Open University of Zambia and was studying for his Masters Degree at the time of his demise.

Prior to joining NACRO, Kaumba Mwananyambe, in his passion for others, founded the Youth and Child Care Foundation.

Here in NACRO, we remember him as key officer who had risen through the ranks and went on to represent NACRO-Zambia as a team member of the Resource Mobilisation and Capacity Building for NACRO in Malawi and Zimbabwe. He was also very instrumental in networking with different organisations.

Our prayers, love and sympathy are eternally with his dear family.
